CHAPTER VI - MOTIVE

2 top	Motive	- The first sentence is an awkward phrase.
2-3 Rewrite paragraph	"Sanity" -	- Oswald's legal sanity is not inherently unanswerable, but is irrelevant here. The psychological truth is however very important here. This whole passage is misleading.
3 Rewrite or leave out	Psychoanalysis	- "Ex post facto" should be "posthumous" - Paragraph is poorly written - too apologetic & bad method of approach anyway.
4, line 13	Motivation	- 66.2 is "commission".
4, line 17	"	- "their own values & those of their society"
5, line 10	"	- Correct grammar
6, line 4	Summary - Ψ	- "almost" completely eliminates - Last sentence should be separate paragraph
9	Playing hooky	- Was mother's leaving the only reason? Doesn't
13	Footnote citations	- Are these multiple references to the same source necessary? (two in one sentence even). The preceding paragraph has one footnote for all its citations.

15	Lee's brothers - Amplify	— Their absence, while in boarding school, is also a factor. Pierce also lee's stay in Orphan's home should be mentioned - Mrs O's lack of attention should be more specifically documented.
17, lines 4-8	Predicting violence	— Two ideas are confusingly run together here: a) 2 workers recommended leaving Lee at home & b) the one worker who recommended institutional care did not do so to avoid violence. — This should be clarified
17, line 12	Marguerite	— Correct diction
9, lines 8-9	Marine Corps	— Rephrase last clause.
21	footnote 34	— Reference is wrong; should be to later scholarship.
21-22	Robert's example in Marine Corps	— Is there any authority for this? See John Pice - all guesswork
24, line 4	"great men"	— Authority for this? Yes OK
25	footnote 43	— Mary's evidence confirming this should be cited.
26, line 2	Marxism	— Delete phrase in brackets.
25-26	Marxism	— Effects are in inverted order.
27, lines 9-16	Pamphlet	— Wording is awkward
27	Rosenberg incident	— Whole section is confusing & unclear; rewrite & shorten.
28, line 8	Authority figures	— Clarify this passage.
31, line 8	Russian stay	— Correct grammar.

33, line 9	Return to U.S.	–	Correct phrasing
33-35	Lee's hatred of U.S.		Is this given too much attention? This one letter is the only real evidence here & it is full of seemingly intentional exaggeration. Topic should be shortened.
36	Disillusionment in USSR	–	Correct sentence structure
37, line 1	Return to US	–	First sentence is awkward.
37-38	Return to Texas	–	This sentence is a mess.
38	Footnote 69 – "offial"	–	Footnote is irrelevant
40, line 9	Return to USSR visas	–	Correct diction
41-42	"Outsider" status	–	This explanation is unclear & clouded by "fine writing." It should be simplified.
41-48	Employment trouble	–	Whole story of real trouble & excuses is poorly told. Examples are good, but effect is lost in flood of language. Should be rewritten.
48, para 1	Lack of friends		Topic sentence use poorly done, as here – Main subject is lost in subordinate clauses. This fault is frequent.
48	footnote 105	–	When did Marina forge FPCC membership card?
52	deM goes to Haiti	–	This was in May, not April, see D. deM's testimony.
52, lines 6-8	Russian friends		Delete parenthetical clause.
52-53	Marguerite		Chronologically this incident comes in the wrong place – should be earlier.
61, last line	FPCC fantasy		Negative should be removed.

c) His family life when young. What were his brothers like? How did they get along with him & with Margaret?

3- The format of this whole section is a problem. I'm not sure the direction I suggested is the best way to handle it, but not having seen the rest of Vol 4 I am not in a position to decide for sure. I see two basic alternatives:

a) Conduct all the W & interview discussion with his wife & write it into the narrative history. This [illegible]

b) Handle the biography as best as you can & then have a separate section at the end of the interviews with his wife. There's [illegible] that approach, too.

General Comments

1 — This section was written poorly done. Oswald's views [illegible] & Lovely & his crazy [illegible] Warren Hill House [illegible] too much detail. Lots [illegible] Appendix will cover the [illegible] repetitious & redundant [illegible] The writer must keep [illegible] purpose of this section [illegible] writers to avoid [illegible]
